

CAUTION NOTICE TO GENERAL PUBLIC

Solicitation of business by the fraudsters in the name of Zuari Cement Limited.
Impersonation of the officers of the Zuari Cement Limited.
Fabrication of documents to deceive the general public.

It has come to our attention that unauthorized persons with malicious intent approaching the general public across India soliciting the business i.e. providing distributorship and supply of products., by using illegally the name of Zuari Cement Limited. The modus operandi is they approach the general public with the false and fabricated documents viz dealership certificates, identity cards, invoices, in the name of Zuari Cement Limited and seek the remittance of funds by providing inter alia, the IFS code and bank account details for issuing dealership in their area and supply of cement to them.

We abundantly clarify that Zuari Cement Limited will never seek any business from the general public through online communication nor we have mandated any persons to do the online business. We have a process for the appointment of dealer for our product, which includes physical verification by the officers of the Company. We, therefore, alert the general public to remain vigilant and to exercise the necessary caution while doing any online transaction including remittance of funds and not to rely on such malicious calls and communication. Kindly note that neither the company nor any official of Zuari Cement Limited shall be liable for any loss incurred by the general public for such acts of fraud committed on them by the unauthorized person(s).
